

ASHLEY HOMESTORE GREAT BED RACES AT HOME

Let's be honest, the Great Bed Races is one of the most exciting events. And just because you're at home, it doesn't mean you can't have your own excitement. Of course, we're not talking about racing your beds in the house. We're talking about:

BLANKET FORTS

Building a blanket fort is never a bad idea and a perfect excuse to make sure you're safe at home. Make your forts as majestic as ever.

PILLOW FIGHTS

Hey, you got to protect your castle as someone is always trying to take charge. Have your own battle royale, but don't get too carried away.

BED-MAKING TIME TRIALS

Put your cleanliness where your mouth is. That's not actually clean, but you know what we mean. Start with a bare mattress and see who's the fastest at making the sleekest looking bed.

LIFE IN BED

Sometimes, or majority of the time, you just want to spend the day relaxing in bed. Give a portrayal of the most comfortable lifestyle. Work in bed, picnic in bed, cuddle with the dog or whatever you choose.

SHARE

Go on social media and show us how creative or intense your activities are. Show off your fort, the aftermath of battle, or just let us know how comfy you are. Be sure to tag @KyDerbyFestival.
